In the event of non-payment, all provisions of these Articles relating to calls, interest, expenses, forfeiture and other consequences shall apply as if such sum had become payable pursuant to a call duly made.

11.8 In any action or proceeding brought by the Company for the recovery of any money due from a member in respect of shares, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of such member appears in the Register of Members as the holder of the shares at or after the date on which the money became due, that the resolution making the call is duly recorded in the minutes, and that notice of the call was duly given in accordance with these Articles. Provided further that upon liquidation of the Company, such advance shall be repayable in priority to any return of capital to members, in accordance with applicable law.

11.11 No member shall be entitled to exercise any voting rights in respect of any amount paid in advance of calls until such amount becomes presently payable pursuant to a call.
