CODE OF CONDUCT FOR BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND SENIOR MANAGEMENT
(Pursuant to Regulation 17(5) of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015)

➤ INTRODUCTION

- a. The Company proposes to establish this Code of Conduct for the members of its Board of Directors and senior management personnel in accordance with Section 149 of the Companies Act, 2013 and the rules framed thereunder (the “Act”), read with Schedule IV, and Regulation 17(5) of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, as amended (the “Listing Regulations”).
- b. In compliance with the above requirement, Astonea Labs Limited (the “Company”) has formulated this Code of Conduct for Directors and Senior Management (the “Code” or “Code of Conduct”), which is applicable to all members of the Board of Directors of the Company (the “Board” or “Directors”) as well as to officers and personnel constituting the core management team of the Company, excluding the Directors, as further detailed in Regulation 16(1)(d) of the Listing Regulations and defined herein as the “Senior Management”.
- c. This Code serves as a guiding framework for the Directors of the Board (“Directors”) and Senior Management of the Company, enabling them to uphold the Company’s ethical standards in the conduct of its affairs, and thereby maintain and strengthen the trust and confidence placed in them by the Company’s stakeholders.
- d. Regulation 46(2)(d) of the Listing Regulations mandates that every listed company publish its Code of Conduct for the Board and Senior Management on its website. The Company’s Code of Conduct not only ensures compliance with the Companies Act, 2013 and the rules framed thereunder, the Listing Regulations, and other applicable laws, but also reinforces the principles of exemplary corporate governance. This Code became effective from the date of listing of the Company’s equity shares, following its approval by the Board in the meeting held on 03rd December , 2025.
- e. The Code emphasizes the importance of transparency, integrity, and accountability in all business dealings and decision-making processes, guiding Directors and Senior Management in aligning their actions with the Company’s vision, mission, and core values.
- f. The Code is intended to serve as a reference point for ethical conduct, helping the Board and Senior Management identify and address potential conflicts of interest, maintain confidentiality, and uphold the highest standards of professionalism in all interactions with stakeholders, including shareholders, employees, customers, regulators, and the community at large.

➤ SCOPE

Accordingly, the Board of Directors has adopted the Code of Conduct, which applies to all members of the Board and Senior Management, and sets out the following:

- i. Guidance on Ethical Standards: Provides comprehensive guidance on ethical standards of conduct in relation to professional responsibilities, including the identification and management of conflicts of interest, acceptance of positions of responsibility, fair treatment of business opportunities, and maintaining integrity in all dealings within and outside the Company.
- ii. Compliance with Laws and Regulations: Outlines the responsibility of Directors and Senior Management to comply with applicable laws, rules, regulations, and the Company’s policies, including but not limited to the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, anti-corruption and anti-bribery statutes, and other statutory requirements relevant to the Company's business operations.

- iii. Annual Affirmation: Establishes the procedure for annual affirmations of compliance with the Code by all Directors and Senior Management personnel, ensuring continued adherence to ethical standards .
- iv. Safeguarding Company Assets and Information: Emphasizes the duty of Directors and Senior Management to protect the Company's assets, intellectual property, and confidential information, and to use such resources solely for legitimate business purposes.
- v. Promoting a Culture of Corporate Governance: Reinforces the commitment to exemplary corporate governance practices, fostering transparency, integrity, accountability, and ethical decision-making at all levels of the organization.
- vi. Reporting and Accountability Mechanisms: Provides clear guidelines for reporting violations or potential breaches of the Code, and encourages a culture of openness where Directors and Senior Management can raise concerns without fear of retaliation, in alignment with the Company's Whistleblower Policy
- vii. Stakeholder Engagement and Responsibility: Guides Directors and Senior Management in their interactions with shareholders, employees, customers, regulators, and the broader community, ensuring that all actions uphold the Company's values and enhance stakeholder trust.
