BOARD EVALUATION PROCESS DOCUMENT

1. PURPOSE

The purpose of this Board Evaluation Process Document (“Document”) is to establish a formal and structured framework for the annual evaluation of the performance of the Board of Directors, its Committees, and individual Directors. The evaluation process is designed to enhance the effectiveness, accountability, and governance standards of the Board, thereby ensuring alignment with the Company’s strategic objectives and regulatory requirements.

This Document is prepared in accordance with:

- Section 134(3)(p) of the Companies Act, 2013, which requires the Board to evaluate its own performance, the performance of its Committees, and individual Directors; and
- Regulation 17(10) of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, which mandates an annual performance evaluation of the Board, its Committees, and Directors, including Independent Directors.

2. SCOPE

This evaluation process applies to:

- The Board of Directors as a whole;
- All Board Committees, including but not limited to the Audit Committee, NRC, and Stakeholders’ Relationship Committee; and
- Individual Directors, including Executive, Non-Executive, and Independent Directors.

3. EVALUATION OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the Board Evaluation process include:

1. Assessing the overall effectiveness of the Board and its Committees in fulfilling their fiduciary and strategic responsibilities.
2. Identifying strengths, weaknesses, and areas for improvement in the Board’s functioning, composition, and processes.
3. Ensuring that Directors contribute effectively to decision-making, risk oversight, and corporate governance.
4. Facilitating continuous professional development for Directors, including training and familiarization programs.

4. EVALUATION CRITERIA

The Board and its Committees shall be evaluated on various parameters, including but not limited to:

- Board Composition & Diversity: Adequacy of skills, experience, gender representation, and independence.
- Strategic Oversight: Contribution to long-term strategy, vision, and risk management.
- Governance & Compliance: Adherence to corporate governance principles, statutory and regulatory requirements.

- Decision-Making Effectiveness: Quality, timeliness, and robustness of deliberations and decisions.
- Commitment & Participation: Attendance, engagement, and proactive contribution in meetings.
- Stakeholder Focus: Consideration of shareholder interests, ESG factors, and broader stakeholder concerns.

5. EVALUATION PROCESS

1. Self-Assessment by Directors: Each Director completes a confidential self-assessment form evaluating their own performance and contributions.
2. Committee Review: The NRC or a designated independent committee reviews the performance of each Director, the Board, and its Committees.
3. Board Discussion: The results of the evaluation are discussed by the Board in a structured session, ensuring constructive feedback.
4. Action Plan: Based on evaluation outcomes, the Board identifies areas for improvement, recommends training or development programs, and implements necessary changes in governance processes.
5. Documentation: The evaluation outcomes, along with the Board's action plan, shall be recorded in the Board minutes and reported in the Annual Report, as required by SEBI LODR Regulations.

6. GOVERNANCE & CONFIDENTIALITY

- The evaluation process shall be overseen by the NRC to ensure objectivity and transparency.
- All evaluation materials and feedback shall be treated confidentially and shared only with relevant stakeholders for the purpose of improving Board effectiveness.
- Any deviations or modifications to this process shall require approval from the Board of Directors.

7. DISCLOSURE

The Company shall disclose in its Annual Report:

- That the Board has carried out an annual evaluation of its performance, the Committees, and individual Directors, and
- The framework or criteria used for such evaluation, in accordance with SEBI (LODR) Regulations, 2015 and the Companies Act, 2013.

The Board evaluation process was approved by the Board of Directors at its meeting held on 27.02.2026.

Effective Date: 27.02.2026
